UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

IN RE:)	CHAPTER 7

GERALD SCOTT SCOFIELD, JR.,)	CASE NO. 10-63683
Debtor.)	JUDGE RUSS KENDIG

)	MEMORANDUM OF OPINION
)	(NOT INTENDED FOR
)	PUBLICATION)

Gerald Scott Scofield, Jr. (hereafter "Debtor") filed a chapter 13 petition on August 26, 2010. Debtor did not file a certificate demonstrating compliance with 11 U.S.C. § 109. Instead, he checked box three on Official Form 1, Exhibit D and indicated he requested, but was unable to obtain, credit counseling and had exigent circumstances for a waiver of the requirement. He did not identify any exigent circumstances on the form, nor did he file a motion requesting a waiver. The matter is now before the court sua sponte.

The court has jurisdiction of this case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334 and the general order of reference entered in this district on July 16, 1984. Venue in this district and division is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409. The following constitutes the court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7052.

This opinion is not intended for publication or citation. The availability of this opinion, in electronic or printed form, is not the result of a direct submission by the court.

The Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act (hereafter "BAPCPA") enacted in 2005 mandated that debtors obtain counseling prior to filing bankruptcy. See 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). There are limited exceptions to the requirement. Under 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(2)(A), the requirement does not apply in districts where a designated official determines that adequate counseling services are not available; this exception is not applicable in this district. The other exception is found in section 109(h)(3), which provides, in relevant part, that a prefiling credit counseling certificate is not required:

with respect to a debtor who submits to the court a certification that--

- (i) describes exigent circumstances that merit a waiver of the requirements of paragraph (1);
- (ii) states that the debtor requested credit counseling services from an approved nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency, but was unable to obtain the services referred to in paragraph (1) during the 5-day period beginning on the date on which the debtor made the request; and
- (iii) is satisfactory to the court.

All three prongs must be satisfied to be excused from the credit counseling requirement.

Specific instructions are included in paragraph three of Official Form 1:

I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here] _____

In spite of the clear direction, Debtor failed to summarize the exigent circumstances underlying his request. He has failed both procedurally and substantively to appropriately request a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement. Consequently, debtor cannot prove that he is entitled to be excepted from the requirements of section 109.

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(1), an individual may not be a debtor unless he or she completed a briefing ("briefing") outlining the opportunities for credit counseling and assisting in performing a related budget analysis in the 180 days prior to filing the petition. The language of the statutes is clear that this must be completed before filing the petition or the individual does not qualify to be a debtor. It is clear Debtor has failed to satisfy this requirement and is therefore ineligible to be a debtor. Debtor's case will be dismissed.

Debtor is advised that this decision, and the resulting dismissal, does not relieve her of the obligation to pay the filing fee. The full filing fee is due the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Ohio. Debtor is ordered to pay the fee in accordance with the order denying the debtors' application to proceed in forma pauperis.

An order in accordance with this decision shall be entered forthwith.
